JESSIE RITTER

A singer and writer of country music. She grew up in Southeast Missouri, went to college in Nashville, toured the world singing on cruise ships, and eventually landed on the Emerald Coast in Florida. She calls both Pensacola and Nashville home. She has been lucky enough to win some cool awards and perform with some her my heroes. She feels very blessed to be able to pour her life into music and the other things she loves: family, traveling in her RV, spending as much time outside as possible, hearing and telling stories. She seeks sunshine and a simple life. These things make her songs sound just like her. All she has to share is her heart. Take time to listen to its beating.

DION JONES

Growing up in the now-thriving 30A area, Jones witnessed it's transformation from tranquil beach town to culturally rich artistic community. Although he dabbled with the guitar as a child, his passion primarily resided in athletics. He excelled in football, baseball and soccer, resulting in a sports scholarship to attend college. However, a career in sports was not in his future. Fate intervened when he passed by the campus music hall and took in a mesmerizing choir rehearsal. Instantly captivated by the emanating harmonies, Jones holds that specific moment responsible for rediscovering his passion for music. The following semester, he auditioned for and joined that same college choir. The fire had been lit and there was no turning back.
